Numb. 13615.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 18, to Tuesday January 21, 1794.

Weſtminſter, January 21, 1794.

THIS Day His Majeſty came to the Houſe of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, ſeated on the Throne with the uſual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod, was ſent with a Meſſage from His Majeſty to the Houſe of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the Houſe of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majeſty was pleaſed to make the following moſt gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE Circumſtances under which you are now aſſembled require your moſt ſerious Attention.

We are engaged in a Conteſt, on the Iſſue of which depend the Maintenance of Our Conſtitution, Laws, and Religion, and the Security of all Civil Society.

You muſt have obſerved, with Satisfaction, the Advantages which have been obtained by the Arms of the Allied Powers, and the Change which has taken Place in the general Situation of Europe, ſince the Commencement of the War. The United Provinces have been protected from Invaſion. The Auſtrian Netherlands have been recovered and maintained; and Places of conſiderable Importance have been acquired on the Frontiers of France. The Recapture of Mentz, and the ſubſequent Succeſſes of the Allied Armies on the Rhine, have, notwithſtanding the Advantages recently obtained by the Enemy in that Quarter, proved highly beneficial to the Common Cauſe. Powerful Efforts have been made by My Allies in the South of Europe. The temporary Poſſeſſion of the Town and Port of Toulon has greatly diſtreſſed the Operations of My Enemies; and in the Evacuation of that Place an important and deciſive Blow has been given to their Naval Power, by the diſtinguiſhed Conduct, Abilities, and Spirit of My Commanders, Officers and Forces, both by Sea and Land.

The French have been driven from their Poſſeſſions and Fiſhery at Newfoundland; and important and valuable Acquiſitions have been made both in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies.

At Sea our Superiority has been undiſputed, and our Commerce ſo effectually protected, that the Loſſes ſuſtained have been inconſiderable in Proportion to it's Extent, and to the Captures made on the contracted Trade of the Enemy.

The Circumſtances by which the further Progreſs of the Allies has hitherto been impeded, not only prove the Neceſſity of Vigour and Perſeverance on Our Part, but at the ſame Time confirm the Expectation of ultimate Succeſs. Our Enemies have derived the Means of temporary Exertion, from a Syſtem which has enabled them to diſpoſe arbitrarily of the Lives and Property of a numerous People, and which openly violates every Reſtraint of Juſtice, Humanity and Religion. But theſe Efforts, productive as they neceſſarily have been of internal Diſcontent and Confuſion, have alſo tended rapidly to exhauſt the national and real Strength of that Country.

Although I cannot but regret the neceſſary Continuance of the War, I ſhould ill conſult the eſſential Intereſts of My People if I were deſirous of Peace, on any Grounds but ſuch as may provide for their permanent permanent Safety, and for the Independence and Security of Europe. The Attainment of these Ends is still obstructed by the Prevalence of a System in France, equally incompatible with the Happiness of that Country, and with the Tranquillity of all other Nations.

Under this Impression I thought proper to make a Declaration of the Views and Principles by which I am guided. I have ordered a Copy of this Declaration to be laid before you, together with Copies of several Conventions and Treaties with different Powers, by which you will perceive how large a Part of Europe is united in a Cause of such general Concern.

I reflect, with unspeakable Satisfaction, on the steady Loyalty and firm Attachment to the established Constitution and Government, which, notwithstanding the continued Efforts employed to mislead and to seduce, have been so generally prevalent among all Ranks of My People. These Sentiments have been eminently manifested in the Zeal and Alacrity of the Militia to provide for Our internal Defence, and in the distinguished Bravery and Spirit displayed on every Occasion by My Forces, both by Sea and Land: They have maintained the Lustre of the British Name, and have shewn themselves worthy of the Blessings which it is the Object of all Our Exertions to preserve.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have ordered the necessary Estimates and Accounts to be laid before you; and I am persuaded you will be ready to make such Provision as the Exigencies of the Time may require. I feel too sensibly the repeated Proofs which I have received of the Affection of My Subjects not to lament the Necessity of any additional Burthens. It is, however, a great Consolation to Me to observe the favourable State of the Revenue, and compleat Success of the Measure, which was last Year adopted, for removing the Embarrassments affecting Commercial Credit.

Great as must be the Extent of our Exertions, I trust you will be enabled to provide for them in such a Manner as to avoid any Pressure which could be severely felt by My People.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

In all your Deliberations you will undoubtedly bear in Mind the true Grounds and Origin of the War.

An Attack was made on Us and on Our Allies, founded on Principles which tend to destroy all Property, to subvert the Laws and Religion of every civilized Nation, and to introduce universally that wild and destructive System of Rapine, Anarchy, and Impiety, the Effects of which, as they have already been manifested in France, furnish a dreadful but useful Lesson to the present Age and to Posterity.

It only remains for Us to continue to persevere in Our united Exertions: Their Discontinuance or Relaxation could hardly procure even a short Interval of delusive Repose, and could never terminate in Security or Peace. Impressed with the Necessity of defending all that is most dear to Us, and relying, as We may with Confidence, on the Valour and Resources of the Nation, on the combined Efforts of so large a Part of Europe, and, above all, on the incontestible Justice of Our Cause, let Us render Our Conduct a Contrast to that of Our Enemies, and, by cultivating and practising the Principles of Humanity and the Duties of Religion, endeavour to merit the Continuance of the Divine Favor and Protection, which have been so eminently experienced by these Kingdoms.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 15th of January, 1794.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Order in Council, bearing Date the Ninth Day of October last, His Majesty was pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order and declare, that from and after the Date of the said Order, until His Majesty's Pleasure should be signified to the contrary, all His loving Subjects might lawfully trade to and with the City and Port of Toulon, and the Dependencies thereof, under certain Exceptions, Regulations, Conditions, Restrictions, Duties, Penalties and Forfeitures, specified in the said Order; and further to order and declare as in the same Order is expressed: And whereas the said City and Port of Toulon, and the Dependencies thereof, are no longer under the Protection of His Majesty, but are under the Government of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France: It is this Day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the said Order in Council, and every Part thereof, be, and the same is hereby, from the Day of the Date of this present Order in Council, vacated and repealed. It is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Will and Pleasure, that the said Order shall continue in full Force and Effect as to all Commodities permitted by the said Order to be imported from the said City and Port of Toulon, and their Dependencies, into the Ports of this Kingdom, in the Manner mentioned in the said Order, which shall be proved, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or to such Persons as they shall appoint, to have been actually shipped for such Importation during during the Time that the ſaid Port was under the Protection of His Majeſty. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, and the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

W. Fawkener.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 15th of January, 1794.

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majeſty's Order in Council of the Twenty-fourth of July, 1793, prohibiting the tranſporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Roſin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Maſts, Yards, Bowſprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Twenty-fifth Day of this inſtant January; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the ſaid Prohibition ſhould be continued for ſome Time longer: His Majeſty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Perſon or Perſons whoſoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, to commence from the ſaid Twenty-fifth Day of this inſtant January, preſume to tranſport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Roſin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Maſts, Yards, Bowſprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores; or ſhip or lade any of the Articles above mentioned on board any Ship or Veſſel, in order to tranſporting the ſame into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permiſſion being firſt had and obtained from His Majeſty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act, paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to enable His "Majeſty to reſtrain the Exportation of Naval "Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Ex-"portation of Salt Petre, Arms and Ammunition, "when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in "Council." But it is, nevertheleſs, His Majeſty's Pleaſure, that nothing herein contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any of His Majeſty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Veſſels or Boats, in the Service of His Majeſty, or employed or freighted by His Majeſty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Veſſel from taking or having on Board ſuch Quantities of Naval Stores as may be neceſſary for the Uſe of ſuch Ship or Veſſel during the Courſe of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commiſſioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the ſaid ſeveral Articles to Ireland, or to His Majeſty's Yards or Garriſons, or to His Majeſty's Colonies or Plantations in America, or the Weſt Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majeſty's Forts and Settlements on the Coaſt of Africa; or to the Iſland of St. Helena, or the Britiſh Settlements or Factories in the Eaſt Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of any of the ſaid Articles, for the Purpoſes of Trade, to Ireland, or to His Majeſty's Yards or Garriſons, or to His Majeſty's Colonies and Plantations in America, or the Weſt Indies, or to the Iſland of Newfoundland, or to His Majeſty's Forts and Settlements on the Coaſt of Africa, or to the Iſland of St. Helena, or the Britiſh Settlements or Factories in the Eaſt Indies, the Exporters of ſuch Articles do firſt make Oath of the true Deſtination of the ſame to the Places for which they ſhall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the ſame ſhall be made, and do give full and ſufficient Security by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms, to carry the ſaid Articles to the Places for which they are ſo entered Outwards, and for the Purpoſes ſpecified, and none other; and ſuch Bond ſhall not be cancelled or delivered up, until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, and ſpecified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in ſuch Form and Manner as ſhall be directed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, ſhewing that the ſaid Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

W. Fawkener.
